Important Information for Parents and Staff

- Camper registration will run from 3-6pm on Sunday. We ask that the campers bring their own food for dinner on Sunday evening. The first scheduled meal will be breakfast on Monday morning.
- Any participant without a completed Health Form WILL NOT be allowed to stay at camp.
- A valid driver's license will be required to sign any camper out of camp. Please bring one with you to check in or out any campers.
- Cell phones and electronic devices will be confiscated if seen in camp. Please leave them with your parents and bring a camera or alarm clock if desired. (Medical exemption will be granted by nurses)
- If at any point during camp you have a fever or are vomiting, your emergency contact will be called to come take you from camp. If you have an underage camper, they will need to go with you or transfer their responsibility to another adult.
- If your child has a contagious condition (this includes pink eye, lice, MRSA, fever, etc.) please do not bring them to camp. A full refund will be issued. Refunds will NOT be given once camp begins.
- If you need to contact your child during camp, the caretaker's number is (304) 924-5356.
- Everyone must be checked by our nurses before they can be registered. After being discreetly cleared you will receive a wristband and proceed to the registration table. If a parent or friend plans to enter the cabin to help set up, they must also be cleared and receive a hand stamp. No one is allowed into a cabin without a wristband or hand stamp.
- Make sure to put cabin buddy requests on your registration form because there will be NO cabin changes the first day.
- New for 2025 - Modest covering (Board Discretion) one piece bathing suit for girls, swimming trunks for boys without a white T-shirt; a two piece bathing suit will still require a white t-shirt to be worn over top in the pool.
- Please arrange to pick up children by 9:00 am on Saturday.
